Lorne Balfe^o

Lorne Balfe is a prolific composer both in the UK and US. Lorne's music has been featured in some of the most successful and influential musical scores of the last five years including THE DARK KNIGHT for which Balfe was awarded a Grammy, SHERLOCK HOLMES, FROST/NIXON, BATMAN BEGINS, ANGELS AND DEMONS, IRON MAN, THE SIMPSONS, PIRATES OF THE CARIBBEAN: DEAD MAN'S CHEST and TRANSFORMERS.

Recent credits include MEGAMIND, which was released December 2010, and THE DILEMMA which Lorne co-composed with Hans Zimmer.

Last year Lorne was nominated for Discovery of the Year, in the World Soundtrack Awards for his first solo feature film CRYING WITH LAUGHTER, as well as composing the score to the successful game CALL OF DUTY : MODERN WARFARE 2.

Lorne was born in 1976 in Inverness, Scotland. He was a Music Scholar at Fettes College and studied composition at the Trinity College of Music and the London College of Music. He then moved to Los Angeles and began to work for film composer Hans Zimmer's company Media Ventures, where he composes and arranges music for Hans Zimmer, Klaus Badelt and Rupert Gregson-Williams.

Lorne is currently scoring director Shane Salinger's documentary feature SALINGER, , a haunting exploration of the enigmatic life of J.D. Salinger, featuring Philip Seymour Hoffman, Edward Norton, John Cusack and Danny DeVito.

Lorne is based in London, but also splits his time between Inverness and Los Angeles.
